Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 BETTER SUNSET tried to find room along the inside in the stretch last week but was blocked behind a wall or horses before angling out on the heels of rivals before lunging forward in the dying strides. He only missed by a nose to Dreamfair Arnie B as the 8/5 favorite and took that support after he found himself in a similar predicament nine nights earlier when he had to settle for sixth at 5-1. This son of Bettors Delight walked away empty-handed in each of his first four tries this season but will get another crack at this bottom condition class and is trending in the right direction for trainer Murray Brethour. He might be handled more aggressively when sliding back down to the inside of the gate and has our call on top to kick off the card.

#1 FOREFATHER got an adventurous journey in the Hi-5 mandatory payout event on November 9th and was wide into the first turn before getting parked the route from post-five. He hit the board in consecutive outings at this level before that and was only a head away from victory on November 2nd when he rounded out the exacta behind Moonwather at 5/2. This 15-time winner will work from the pole position and picks up Brett MacDonald in the sulky for the first time. He can be right there at the wire

#6 SOUTHWIND SAMBUCCA made multiple moves last week at odds of 4-1 and popped the pocket on the bend for home before forging his way to the lead in the lane. He faded back to fourth at the finish and was just over two lengths away from Dreamfair Arnie B under the wire. This son of American Ideal has only been able to muster a couple of lesser shares in his last five but might be able to take a step forward in his second attempt on the lasix program. He will have the luxury of leaving from post-six and will have Tyler Borth aboard for a follow-up steer.

#9 WHY WOULDNT YA exits the same race as the one above and split horses in the stretch of that dash before claiming the show spot at 10-1. He was only a head away from victory when he paced his own mile in 1:53.2 and has been fourth or better in his last two in this class. This son of Bettors Delight captured an OSS Grassroots Consolation on September 27th and has hit the board in nine of his 25 tries this season. He has more than enough early foot to get forwardly placed from post-nine and can pick up another decent chunk.

Race 2 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 ROBERTSON DE got away sixth off the gate from the pole position last week and got backed-up to seventh after moving to the outside in the third-over position. He came forward in the lane to finish fifth at 7/2 and was likely handled carefully in that contest after he went on the gallop before the start on November 4th. This 19-time winner has only mustered a couple of minor awards since he unleashed a furious late charge to score in this class on September 16th and was second or better in each of his first two tries in North America after making the trek from Norway. He can benefit from getting a flat line under his belt and has gotten along well with driver Chris Christoforou.

#4 FRANKS ANGEL picked up a lesser share by finishing fifth in the Preferred at 22-1 in his latest but was only able to beat our fourth-choice in that compact field of six. He was the runner-up in back-to-back efforts at this level before that and was only a neck away from victory on October 21st when he completed the exacta behind Handsome Sebastian at 4-1. This 25-time winner was strong in victory before that in the class below this and has hit the board in 14 of his 29 attempts in 2024. He recently surpassed $400,000 in career earnings and will likely go back to getting forwardly placed when getting back down to a palatable spot.

#5 FORBIDDEN TRADE got his picture taken for the first time since September of 2022 last week and delivered at 55 cents to the dollar when making his third start back in that NW8200L5 event. He progressed nicely through those appearances and scored by more than two lengths when he tripped the beam in 1:54.3. This 26-time winner is just under $13,000 away from $2.4M in lifetime earnings and was the champion of the 2019 Hambletonian. He steps up a notch on the class ladder but should be confident coming into this and has repeat potential.

#6 QUEBEC HANOVER was beaten by a wide margin when he finished last of six in the Preferred on November 11th and was sent off as the longest shot on the board in that tilt at 23-1. He was second or better in seven of his prior 10 outings and converted as the odds-on choice of the betting public the last time he competed at this level on October 7th. This 10-time winner picks up leading driver James MacDonald at the reins for the first time and will have options off the gate from the winningest post at Mohawk Park. He can make his presence felt throughout and cannot be left out of the exotics.

Race 3 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 PERFETTO has earned minor awards in each of his last four since returning to the races after a layoff of nearly four months and has been fourth in each of his last two in the class above this. He is just two starts removed from going postward in the Preferred at nearly 31-1 and he began a two-race win-streak when he scored at this level on April 8th. This 31-time winner should appreciate getting back down to this spot and will have top teamster James MacDonald calling the shots for the first time. He will work from the pole position and is our best bet on the card.

#4 BELLA CAVALLA has been the runner-up in three straight at this level and most recently completed the exacta behind Forbidden Trade at 8-1 after she went on the first-over grind from sixth on the swing for home. She has hit the board in each of her last five and has raced on the rim in similar trip scenarios in all of those efforts. This 16-time winner comes right back in this class because she will once again carry the optional claiming tag of $50,000 and will be reunited with driver Louis-Philippe Roy. They have tallied 10 on the board finishes in the 13 times they have been paired together and have notched four victories over that span.

#3 CHULO refused to stay on his gait last week in NW17750L5 and finished last of nine after being on the gallop for much of the mile at odds of 58-1. He was second or better in each of his previous three outings and only gets class-relief this evening because he has been entered for the optional price of $50,000. This 14-time winner has lit the lamp in eight of his 38 tries in 2024 and has done his best work when getting forwardly placed. He will likely try to get back to those tactics this evening and is among the chances.

#7 ALL GAS NO BRAKES was taken back to ninth off the gate from the eight-hole in his latest and rallied in the lane to pick up a lesser share in fifth. He needed a flat line in that outing after he made a break in stride from the pole position at 2-1 the week prior and enjoyed four consecutive victories before making that miscue. This 24-time winner scored by a combined margin of nearly 18 lengths during that win-streak and easily swept a Pop-Up Series as the odds-on favorite in September. He loses J-Mac to our top selection but picks up a familiar face in Chris Christoforou, who has guided him to get his picture taken in three of the four times they have been paired together.

#8 FROWNIES MIRACLE has picked up a prize in four of his last five in the top claiming handicap class on the circuit and will now drop down to the level below where he was snagged for $22,000 on October 7th by trainer Brett Lester. His price tag has been slashed by $13,000 and he demolished his competition the last time he competed in this spot on September 23rd. This 16-time winner scored by nearly five lengths when he stopped the clock in 1:50.2 on that occasion and will have Louis-Philippe Roy at the controls for just the second time in his career. He can wake up in a big way this evening and gets top billing against this group.

#6 LETS GET ROCKED disappointed as the even-money favorite last week and faded back to fifth on the spin for home before holding his ground in that position to the finish. He scored by a pair of lengths at a slightly higher number on the tote board two starts ago and was third on October 28th when he was also sent off as the choice of the betting public. This 13-time winner will now race off the claim for conditioner Jodie Cullen and will have the luxury of leaving from post-six for the third straight start. He is 10 for 36 this season after going winless in 19 last year and can bounce back in a big way.

#5 BIG BULLY kept driving to the early lead from post-10 in his latest and executed a "give and go" with the one above before tracking that rival from the pocket. He was stuck behind him when he shortened stride on the final turn but then could not get past him in the stretch after being shown clear racetrack on the outside. This 10-time winner will be making his second start back under the care of conditioner Malik Smith and has been discounted by $2,000 for tonight's tilt. That has allowed him to draw on the center of the gate after having the eight-hole or worse in four of his last five and he will have Jody Jamieson back aboard for a follow-up steer.

#7 MACH IMPACT completed the superfecta at nearly 18-1 last week after getting away seventh off the switch from post-eight and has finished in that position or better in six of his last seven since being claimed by trainer Cory Fuller. He was the runner-up to our second choice at 9-1 on November 4th and continues to get along well with driver Tyler Jones. This 42-time winner has hit the board in 113 of his 213 career attempts and has proven he can be versatile in his racing style. He has enough tactical speed to give himself options off the gate from post-seven and should be included on the bottom-end of the trifecta and super.

#7 GOLD EDITION has won two in a row in the top condition class for trotters at The Raceway in London and was late to the gate on October 28th before getting away fifth but then powered his way to the lead near the midway point. He delivered as the even-money favorite and could not have been more dominant in victory one week earlier when he made every call a winning one from the pole position in 1:58 flat. This 23-time winner should have his confidence back after getting beaten by a wide margin in eighth in NW2000L3 in his most recent try at this venue and will be reunited with Phil Hudon in the sulky after his trainer Blair Burgess called his own number in the bike in his last two. He should offer some value on the board and worth a whirl on top.

#5 YANK MY HALO claimed the show spot at nearly 4-1 on October 28th in this class and was just over a length away winner Muscle Fashion at the wire. He tried to make gains along the pylons in the lane after he gapped-out on the spin for home and came from a long way off the pace to be fifth two back after being taken back to ninth off the gate. This son of Archangel scored on the front-end on October 7th in the bottom condition class and trotted to his lifetime mark of 1:54.3 in that effort. He will have Bob McClure aboard for a follow-up steer and can be right there at the finish.

#2 WATERFALL was moving well at the end of his mile last week when going postward in a lifetime non-winners condition and picked up a lesser share in fifth after he got away seventh off the switch. He stepped home in 28.1 on the heels of a back-half in 57.3 and had not raced in three weeks going into that effort. This son of Walner has a flat line to his credit after making a miscue at Cumberland Run in Kentucky on October 21st and will be making his second start out of the barn of trainer Marie Helene Dupont. He will have Chris Christoforou back in the bike and can benefit from racing on a regular rotation.

#9 MYSTIC spun his wheels on the outside after making a first-over bid on the final turn at 2-1 on October 28th and had to settle for a minor award in fifth. He took on much tougher company in NW16950L5 when finishing sixth two starts ago but could not have been more dominant in victory on October 14th when he ran up the score on his foes in the bottom condition class. He won by more than nine lengths when he trotted his way to a new career best clocking of 1:53 flat but must overcome a difficult draw this evening with post-nine. He has rebound potential and should not be taken lightly.

#8 HESINCONTROL got away sixth off the gate from post-six in NW4000L5 last week and stayed on the cones before trying to make gains along the inside in the stretch. He squeezed up the pylons to get within three quarters of a length of Livinthebeachlife and will now be making his fifth start back after missing more than two months of action. This 19-time winner can benefit from getting back on a regular rotation and will likely be handled more aggressively when having Bob McClure aboard for a follow-up steer. He has hit the board in eight of his last 12 when that teamster is at the controls and they can emerge victorious against this group.

#6 BETTOR THAN PRIDE had the difficult task of leaving from the second-tier in a HI-5 mandatory payout event on November 9th and was left with a lot of work to do when he got away 10th off the gate from post-11. He managed to lock down the bottom spot on that wager at nearly 13-1 when he advanced to fifth before the finish and paced his back-half in 56 seconds flat with a final quarter speed of 27.3. This son of Betterthancheddar won each of his first two tries for trainer Des Tackoor before that and has got his picture taken in three of his last five overall. He will appreciate getting to work from the winningest post at Mohawk Park this time around and looms as a danger.

#5 MAGICAL ARTHUR is another that had to work from the back of the bus in his latest and was nearly 14 lengths off the lead at the opening marker after getting away 12th from post-10. He trailed his rivals through the first three panels and then improved to sixth under the wire after splitting rivals in deep stretch. This 11-time winner dominated his competition on October 7th when he scored by nearly five lengths and was only a tick off his lifetime mark when he stopped the clock in 1:50.4. He figures to go back to getting forwardly placed when getting his nose back on the gate from post-five and can land somewhere on the ticket.

#2 CONTROL THE POWER exits the same race as the two above and missed out on third by the slimmest of margins after he dove to the inside in mid-stretch. He appeared to have pace before dropping down to the pylons and has now picked up a prize in each of his last seven. This 14-time winner was the runner-up in each of his previous two outings and can navigate another cozy trip from an inside draw. He can be in the mix throughout and is worth including on the bottom end of the exotics.

Race 7 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 LETS GO JUDE raced well to earn a minor award in fifth in the class above this last week at 136-1 and was just three lengths away from winner Livinthebeachlife after getting away eighth off the gate. He stepped his back-half in 55.3 with a final quarter in 28.1 and had not raced in nearly four months going into that effort. This son of Jk Endofanera has only raced twice since March 30th and can benefit from getting on a regular rotation while dropping down to the bottom condition class. He will be reunited with driver Doug McNair and should be tough to beat if he progresses off that latest performance.

#9 MAJOR HILL left hard from post-eight in his latest and was three-wide for part of the opening turn before touching down on the lead in front of Toronto on the backside. He then released that rival to the lead before angling off of first-over challenger Moonwatcher in the lane and did well to get within a couple of lengths of the victor at the wire. This 46-time winner has earned a cheque in each of his last four and might take flight off the switch from another outside draw this evening. He will have Louis-Philippe Roy aboard for a follow-up steer and looks threatening.

#5 NEEDABANKLOAN was unable to make his presence felt last week after he got away ninth off the gate and was more than 10 lengths off the lead at the opening marker. He improved to sixth before the finish at nearly 32-1 and will be racing back on a regular schedule when trying lasix for the first time. This 12-time winner will be making his fourth start under the care of conditioner Raphael Bourassa after shipping to Ontario from Alberta and retains Tyler Borth at the helm. He is worth a look if the price is right and has upset potential.

#10 HARRY G exits the same race as the two above and rallied for third in that dash to complete the trifecta at odds of 6-1. He has claimed the show spot in each of his last two and has picked up a prize in eight of his last 11 overall. This 26-time winner shifts back out to the dreaded 10-hole but has proven he can be versatile in his racing style. He figures to go off at an inflated number on the tote board and can help spice things up underneath.

Race 8 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#3 SAULSBROOK CAMI has won two in a row at Rideau Carleton and most recently swooped past her rivals with a wide brush on the spin for home in NW25000L on that five-eighths of a mile oval. She scored by nearly two lengths after being third-over in the backfield for much of the mile and has not been worse than second in her last three since moving to the barn of trainer Yannick Martel. This daughter of Alarm Detector returns to Mohawk Park on short rest to jump into this Harvest Series in the second leg and should be confident coming into this. She will have Louis-Philippe Roy calling the shots for the first time and gets the edge on top.

#5 MA ISABELLE rocketed to the early lead from post-nine last week but was relegated to third on the backside. She then got past her rivals again in the stretch after shaking loose and won by more than a pair of lengths in 1:58 flat. This other daughter of Alarm Detector has been second or better in four of her last five and both of her two career victories have come with Bob McClure in the bike. She should appreciate sliding down to the center of the gate and doubling-up is not out of the question.

#8 NAUTILUS B was overland for much of the mile in the opening round of this series and sustained a long first-over bid before vying for the lead in the lane. She faded back to fourth under the wire and was more than three lengths in arrears to the one above at the finish. This daughter of Muscle Mass had not raced in a month going into that effort and can benefit from getting a flat line under her belt after jumping it off in back-to-back appearances in early October. She will have Trevor Henry aboard for a follow-up drive and can hit the ticket.

#6 HOPE N GLORY came around our second choice in the early going to seize control and then quickly released P L Rachel to the engine to sit a two-hole trip. She did well to secure the place spot at 4-1 but was no match for the late legs of the winner. This daughter of Looklikeeachpndale is just one for 32 in her career but has hit the board in six of her 23 attempts as a sophomore. She will once again have the advantage of starting from post-six and can pick up a slice.

Race 9 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#6 LOGAN PARK finished seventh at 6-1 in the Breeders Crown at the Meadowlands on October 26th and was overland for much of the mile in that championship event after having to start from the 10-hole. He was second or better in each of his previous four outings and took down a couple of stakes events over that span when he captured the Allerage Trot in Kentucky and Dayton Derby in Ohio. This 34-time winner should enjoy getting back on his home turf and has six victories in the top trotting class on this circuit this year. He has not raced in more than three weeks coming into this but is not one we are willing to side against on this oval.

#7 AMIGO VOLO has been the boss in this class since making a triumphant return to Mohawk Park on September 30th and his only defeat in his last six came when he was locked and blocked in the pocket at this level on October 7th. He has won three in a row since then and delivered as the odds-on choice in each of his last two when scoring by a combined margin of more than five lengths. This 42-time winner recently went over $2.6M in career earnings and should be oozing confidence. He must overcome the outermost post in the contest this time around but will likely not go down without a fight.

#4 SAFE CONDUCT was the runner-up to the one above in each of his last two and has not finished worse than that position in nine of his last 12. He has not missed the board in his last three since stepping up to the Preferred ranks and was only a head away from our second choice in third at this level on October 21st. This son of Archangel has proven he can be versatile in his racing style and will have options off the gate from post-four. He has raised his game to new heights at the age of five and looks like a logical choice to round out the trifecta.

#1 FASHION FRENZIE exits the same race as the two above and was relegated to third after getting away in the early two-hole behind the one above. He maintained his position to complete the trifecta at odds of 5/2 and has claimed the show spot in each of his last two since going on the lasix program. This 27-time winner has not missed the board in his last four since moving to the care of conditioner Jeff Gillis and delivered as the odds-on favorite in this class on October 7th. He figures to make his presence felt throughout from the pole position and can grab a share.

Race 10 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#5 JADENSMAGICSTEEL is one that we are willing to come back to after he chopped-out the first three panels from post-10 last week and had a healthy margin on his rivals when entering the stretch before fading back to third at 5/2. He had won three in a row prior to that and scored by a combined margin of more than eight lengths over that span. This 27-time winner offered more than 6-1 to his backers on November 4th and had missed a week of action going into that effort after he paced to a new lifetime mark of 1:50.3 on October 21st. He slides down to the center of the gate and might have an easier go of it on the engine this time around. Top call.

#8 B STONEY exits the same race as the one above and came from off the pace in that dash to convert as the 5/2 race-favorite. He was four ticks quicker two weeks earlier when he was activated sooner in the mile and delivered at a much shorter price and has not been worse than second in any of his last seven overall. This 18-time winner has lit the lamp in three of his last four since getting claimed for $18,000 by trainer Shayne Barrington and will now have his price increased to the maximum price tag in this class at $40,000. He has been getting along well with driver Trevor Henry and can triple-up with the right kind of trip scenario.

#7 SAUBLE ACE finished last of 10 at 63-1 in a condition event on November 9th and had not raced in more than two months prior to that effort. He completed a three-race win-streak on the B-tracks when he captured the Preferred-2 in impressive fashion at Grand River Raceway on Industry Day and will now race for a claiming tag for the first time in his career. This 11-time winner can take a step forward when getting back on a regular schedule and does not look out of place against this group. He is worth a look if the price is right.

#4 HES SWIFT has hit the board in 10 of his last 14 and was most recently fourth in this class after getting away in the two-hole from post-nine. He has gotten forwardly placed from a difficult draw in each of his last four and should appreciate sliding down to post-four after he was discounted by another $1,000 for tonight's tilt. This 13-time winner will have Jason Ryan aboard for a follow-up drive and can be in the mix throughout. He should not be left out of any of the exotic wagers.
