Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

1 How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- 1 Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

2 Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	U U U	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	U U	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	U U U U U	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	U U U U U U	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	U U U U U U U U	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order.

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- Horse's number in the race
- Horse's post position colour
- Horse's colour, sex, age, sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- Morning line odds
- Horse's name
- Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)
- Trainer information
- Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4 The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time
PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time
SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

Race 1 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 CAPITANO ITALIANO has spent each of his last two in the class above this and earned a minor award in his most recent effort when he finished fifth at nearly 53-1. He will now drop down to the bottom condition class and is making his fourth start back after missing almost three months of action. This 22-time winner lit the lamp in four of his 33 attempts last season and all of those victories came against tougher groups than the one that he faces this evening. He gets reunited with Travis Cullen and they have finished in the top-two in three of the last four times they were paired together. Giving him the edge in the opener.

#4 HEAD HONCHO has not raced in nearly four months and walked away empty-handed in all of his last five starts. He returned to the top claiming handicap class on the circuit in August and was discounted by $12,000 to get into a softer spot but faded back to sixth in the stretch before going back on the shelf. This son of Control The Moment comes into this with a solid second-place finish in a qualifier on December 27th and was moving well at the end of his mile in that dash when he banged home in 27.1 off a back-half in 56.3. He got the nod from leading driver James MacDonald over two others and looms as a major danger.

#6 INSTANTANEOUS has hit the board in each of his last two since making the transition to this class and was just over a couple of lengths in arrears to Dr Joe in his latest. He was priced for $35,000 in a claiming handicap prior to those two outings and was just two for 43 in 2024. This 16-time winner had 19 top-three finishes over that span and will have the luxury of leaving from post-six. He was passed over by J-Mac in favor of the one above and will have Billy Davis Jr calling the shots for the first time.

#3 OVERTHINKING was shut out in each of his last three when he carried a claiming tag of $41,000 or more and has not finished better than third in his last eight since relocating north of the border. He will now shift his attention to NW2500L5 and fits in nicely with this group. This son of Downbytheseaside should appreciate sliding down another four spots on the gate to post-three and gets back on more of a regular schedule after being off for nearly a month prior to this most recent effort. He will have Trevor Henry at the helm for the third straight start and is not without a chance.

#5 COOL CLIFFORD was sent to the early lead from outside draws in each of his last two but faded back to fourth or worse in those outings and was beaten by a wide margin in seventh in the first leg of this series. He crawled home in 32.3 but has managed to pick up a prize in seven of his last nine overall. This 24-time winner was just four-for-40 in 2024 but hit the board 14 times over that span and has gotten a change of scenery after moving to the barn of trainer Melissa Lamoureux. He got the nod from driver Travis Cullen over the one below and will likely come out firing from the center of the gate.

#8 IM ABOVE AVERAGE was scratched out of the opening leg of this series due to transportation issues but was game in victory at Flamboro Downs before that when he kept odds-on favorite O Narutac Perfetto at bay by a head at the finish. He made every call a winning one on that occasion and had missed more than seven weeks of action going into that effort after he was taken out of a start due to sickness here at Mohawk Park on November 4th. This son of Muscle Mass has won two of his last 10 since being acquired by his current connections and will have Trevor Henry calling the shots for the first time. He has enough tactical speed to overcome the outermost post in the contest and should not be taken lightly.

#1 CELLULAR got stuck behind stalled cover on the swing for home in the opening round of this series last week but was unable to come forward when getting around that rival. He showed some fight in the stretch when he improved to fifth under the wire and was victorious at The Raceway in London almost two weeks prior when racing for an optional price tag of $15,000. This 21-time winner has been second or better in two of his last five since shipping north of the border to race under the care of conditioner Pam Forgie and will have Bob McClure at the reins for the first time. He might be able to take a step forward in his follow-up try on the big track and has upset potential.

#4 NO ANGEL LIKE ME came from way off the pace to be the runner-up to Kenogami Coco in her latest and swooped past most of her rivals on the wide side on the swing for home. She sustained that forward action into the lane when she was just over a length away from the winner at the finish and has not missed a cheque in any of her last four. This daughter of Archangel was six for 41 last year and has hit the board in 21 of her 64 career attempts. She will have Scott Coulter aboard for a follow-up steer but might take more support than we are willing to get behind.

Race 3 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 BELLA CAVALLA has only been able to muster a couple of minor awards in two of her last three and disappointed as the 8/5 favorite when dropping back down to this level last week. She was on the rim through the middle stages but was seven lengths behind winner Sparks Fly at the wire and will now race off the claim for trainer Corey Giles. This 18-time winner hit the board in 19 of her 39 attempts last year and got the nod from top teamster James MacDonald over two others in the dash. She gets to face a pound-for-pound softer group this time around and has our call to bounce back in a big way.

#2 STONEBRIDGE BOMBER was in deep waters in the class above this when he returned to this circuit on December 30th and was beaten by a wide margin in sixth at 62-1 in a race that was topped by Prince Of Honor. He had not raced in more than a month going into that effort after shipping north of the border from Plainridge Racecourse in Maine and was last victorious on that five-eighths of a mile oval on November 7th. This 10-time winner stopped the clock in 1:55.3 on that occasion and might enjoy a follow-up try on the surface where he stepped to his lifetime mark of 1:54.2 in August of 2023. He will be making his third consecutive outing on the lasix program and should much prefer the company he keeps this time out.

#9 CHULO was the runner-up to a well-meant Truffles Too last week, albeit he was more than four lengths in arrears at the finish. He went a big trip as the first-over challenger to that rival before he rounded out the exacta at 6-1 and blew the doors off his competition two back when he scored by nearly nine lengths in the bottom condition class. This 15-time winner shifts to the outside of the gate with post-nine but will likely make his presence felt in the early going. He has raised his game in his last two for his new connections and can keep trending in this right direction.

#4 GIGONDAS has picked up smaller shares in each of his last two after returning from a hiatus of nearly a month and has now not missed a cheque in any of his last four. He was just three for 35 last season but hit the board in 12 of those efforts and should be ready to produce his best when making his third start back. This 11-time winner gets reunited with driver Doug McNair, who returns to action this evening, and he can be in the mix throughout from post-four. He should not be left off the bottom end of the trifecta or super.

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#7 TRUFFLES TOO was one we were fond of last week at 90 cents to the dollar in a softer spot and he crushed his rivals by more than four lengths in 1:56.3. He rallied nicely to be third when racing from off the pace on December 23rd and will now be making his third start out of the barn of trainer Mark Etsell after he returned north of the border from Pocono Downs in Pennsylvania. This 24-time winner can continue to step forward in his second consecutive outing on a regular rotation following a layoff and will have Mario Baillargeon aboard for an encore performance. He has moved up the trotting ranks in swift fashion in the past and has repeat potential.

#8 NEW RULES disappointed as the favorite in each of his last two since dropping down to this class from the Preferred ranks and got hammered down to 65 cents on the dollar in his latest but had to settle for the show spot to Prince Of Honor. He has hit the board in seven of his last 11 and only missed one cheque over that span when he got away last off the gate in the top trotting class on the circuit. This 16-time winner will likely offer an opportunity to take back value for those that have been supporting him but has not made a trip to victory lane since completing a two-race win-streak in early November. He might rebound in a big way but we will stick with the one above on top.

#3 PERFETTO exits the same race as the one above and slipped to the outside underneath that rival on the far turn when going on the attack in the first-over position from the three-hole. He forged his way to the lead in the lane but got his pocket picked in the final steps by Prince Of Honor, who came up the inside. This 31-time winner has not missed a cheque in his last nine overall and has been fourth or better in each of his last seven. He is just over $76,000 shy of $1M in career earnings and figures to play another major role this evening.

#2 DREBIN has won four of his last five and has not missed the board in his last six since returning north of the border to this circuit. He delivered at 80 cents to the dollar or less in each of his last two and ran up the score on his rivals on December 20th when he equalled his lifetime mark of 1:54.1. This 10-time winner should be oozing confidence but now faces a stiffer challenge when stepping up to NW17000L5. He might be able to navigate a cozy trip from post-two and can make his presence felt throughout.

Race 5 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 DAY TRADER got away fourth off the gate in a Pop-Up Consolation on December 27th and moved first-over before the final turn but only briefly took over the lead in the lane. He got leg weary in deep stretch when he faded back to fifth as the odds-on choice of the betting public and has now picked up a prize in each of his six attempts for trainer Des Tackoor. This son of Stay Hungry has hit the board in three of those efforts and transitions to the class where he was a runner-up in two of his last three. He will be reunited with leading driver James MacDonald and has our top honors once again.

#4 LETS GO JUDE went a long way on the lead from post-10 last week and maintained a comfortable margin through the first three panels before giving way in the stretch. He dropped back to fourth under the wire and was beaten by more than seven lengths to Dr Joe but claimed the show spot in each of his three previous tries at this level. This son of Jk Endofanera was just one for 18 in 2024 but managed to hit the board in nine of those appearances. He gets Doug McNair back between the wheels and can be right there at the finish.

#1 PALLADIUM HANOVER did not have much of a chance when he got away last off the gate from post-10 in a Pop-Up Consolation on December 27th. He was 16 lengths off the lead at the opening marker and advanced a couple of positions before the wire at 71-1 while stepping home in 27.4 off a back-half in 57 seconds flat. This 15-time winner has only mustered a couple of minor awards in his last seven but has hit the board in 31 of his 76 lifetime tries. He should appreciate sliding down to the pole position and cannot be ruled out.

#6 BET NINETEEN is an intriguing option after shipping in from Rideau Carleton and was last victorious on October 24th on that five-eighths of a mile oval. He tripped the timer in 1:55.4 on that occasion and that stood as his lone victory in nine attempts last season. This 17-time winner's career best clocking of 1:50.4 came at the Meadowlands in November of 2022 and he will now make his first try out of the barn of trainer Jean-Francois Maguire. He has not raced in more than six weeks but will have the advantage of post-six and fits in nicely with this group.

Race 6 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#6 HEY RALPHIE picked up a prize in each of his last five at Flamboro Downs after he returned from a layoff of nearly five months and was a decisive winner in NW1880L3 on November 30th on that half-mile surface. He notched both of his two victories last season here at Mohawk Park and will be reunited with Dagfin Henriksen in the sulky for tonight's tilt. This son of Il Sogno Dream will have the luxury of leaving from post-six and should be primed for this best when jumping into the second leg of this series. He figures to offer a sizable number on the tote board and is not a bad place to land in a race where many different outcomes are possible.

#2 VILLEFRANCHE AS disappointed as the 1/2 favorite last week and faded back to third in the lane after sitting a loose pocket behind a pumped-up Delcrest Brent. She was a long way back of that rival at the finish but was nearly four lengths better than the Msfrannie in fourth. This 23-time winner was just two for 47 last season but hit the board 25 times over that span. She will have top teamster James MacDonald aboard for a follow-up steer and will offer an opportunity to take back value for those that supported her last time.

#7 SOUTHWIND RUSSIAN jumped it off behind the gate in his latest and was never able to get into contention after he took support to the tune of 3-1. He had not raced in more than two weeks going into that effort and was second or better in each of his previous two tries at Rideau Carleton. This 13-time winner was impressive in victory on November 28th when he went all the way on the engine before scoring by more than three lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:54.3 and might be able to get the measure of this group if he minds his manners. He is worth a look if the price is right.

#5 HEAVY DUDE E only missed a cheque in four of his 38 attempts in 2024 but has not tasted victory since taking down the Legends Trot with Randy Waples at Clinton Raceway at the end of June. He has hit the board in six of his last eight and will now try his luck on the big track for the first time since the middle of July. This 25-time winner's best asset is his gate speed and he will likely have his gas pedal pressed off the switch from post-five. He gets reunited with Tyler Borth and they have gotten their picture taken together on six occasions in the past.

Race 7 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#3 PATRIARCH HANOVER has just one lesser share to his credit in his last five and that came when he dropped down to the class above this last week. He got away sixth off the gate and was only able to improve a couple of spots before the wire but was last victorious at a tougher level on November 4th. This 28-time winner gets Doug McNair back between the wheels and might go back to getting forwardly placed when moving out two positions off the rail to post-three. He faces the softest group he has seen in a very long time and gets top billing.

#1 RADIO LAB had to settle for a minor award in fifth in his latest but sparked an upset at 7-1 before that when he scored by three quarters of a length while dropping down to this level. He has hit the board in five of his last seven and has lit the lamp in three of those efforts. This 17-time winner will now race off the claim for conditioner Carmen Auciello and will have J-Mac giving the commands for the first time. He will likely push out for early position with rail control and is a logical threat.

#4 SATURDAY exits the same race as the one above and would not be denied victory when he held on by half a length over Victor Invictus at the wire. He made multiple moves in that dash and has now been no worse than second in 16 of his 20 career attempts. This son of Muscle Mass gets to come right back in this class because he races for the optional price tag of $25,000 and moves in a couple of spots on the gate to post-four. He will have Travis Cullen aboard for an encore performance and figures to get every chance to land somewhere on the ticket.

#9 THE FIXER was seventh in the class above this last week and drops back down to the level where he was bet down to 6-1 two back but was beaten by a wide margin in ninth. He has picked up a prize in five of his last seven and is just five starts removed from a dominant victory in NW3950L3 at Flamboro Downs. This 27-time winner will likely get overlooked on the odds board this time around and can help spice things up underneath.

Race 8 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#6 COMING FASHION has been second or better in three of his last four at The Raceway in London and forged his way to the lead near the midway marker in his latest before getting picked up by The Great Reset in the dying strides. He won two in a row by a combined margin of more than five lengths at the start of December on that half-mile oval and has hit the board in six of his last nine. This 15-time winner has been in good order for trainer Pam Forgie and will have leading driver James MacDonald at the controls for the first time. He will also have the advantage of working from post-six and is one of our top plays on the card.

#1 LINCOLNS LANDING was fifth at 9-1 at Flamboro Downs on December 28th and was able to get away third from the trailing post in that NW3 contest. He was victorious at 7/2 from post-four in that spot on November 30th and then followed that victory up with a second-place finish to Magic Hush as 6/5 favorite. This son of Tactical Landing is making his first start under the care of conditioner Ashley Lendvoy and will have Travis Cullen at the helm for the first time. He has enough tactical speed to push forward off the switch with rail control and has upset potential.

#2 KENOGAMI COCO took down his division of the first leg of this Pop-Up event and opened a clear margin on his rivals in the stretch before holding on by just over a length. He returned 2-1 to his backers and has earned a cheque in three of his last four since making the transition to the big track. This 22-time winner was no worse than second in nine of his 19 tries in 2024 and will have Bob McClure aboard for an encore performance. He should be confident coming into this and has repeat potential.

#3 DELCREST BRENT absolutely devastated his rivals in his race of the opening round of this series and trotted away by seven lengths under the wire when tripping the beam in 1:58.2. He has picked up a prize in each of his last five and was the runner-up at the bottom level here at Mohawk Park on December 2nd. This 11-time winner tried new tactics by going to the engine in that most recent effort and slides in four spots on the gate for tonight's tilt. He hit the board in 15 of his 40 attempts last year and doubling-up is not out of the question.

Race 9 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#3 B STONEY has not been able to do better than third in his last three but won five of his previous seven and was not worse than second in any of those efforts. He should appreciate sliding down to the post-three after being discounted by $10,000 and has had to leave from the eight-hole or worse in all of his last four. This 19-time winner was Trevor Henry's choice over two others and can get back to his winning ways this evening. He will likely attract attention on the tote board but is still our clear choice on top.

#1 BETTOR THAN PRIDE has won two of his last three and was only beaten by half a length two starts ago when he jumped into the second leg of a Pop-Up Series. He got up a neck on December 27th to take down a consolation for the added-money event and has won four of his last 10 since being acquired by his current connections. This 10-time winner now gets tagged for $30,000 in his top open claiming handicap class on the circuit but was passed over by Trevor Henry in favor of the one above. He will have Doug McNair at the reins for the first time and should not be underestimated.

#5 FROWNIES MIRACLE has been on a tear as of late in a lower claiming handicap class and has reeled-off three straight victories by a combined margin of 10 lengths. He converted as the favorite in each of his last two after making front before the midway mark but came from the clouds on December 9th when he sparked an upset at 19-1. This 19-time winner has earned a cheque in eight of his last 10 since moving to the barn of trainer Brett Lester and has earned a chance at stepping up to this level. He will have J-Mac at the lines for an encore performance and should be brimming with confidence.

#2 DOUBLE DOWN DUKE was one we were fond of last week when he dropped back down to this class but had to settle for the show spot at odds of nearly 4-1. He has not finished worse than fourth in his five starts for conditioner Carmen Auciello and got up by a head at this level on December 9th after getting claimed back by this barn. This 21-time winner's price tag was slashed by $1,000 this evening and that allows him to get back down to the inside of the gate. He should be included in all of the exotic wagers.
