WOODBINE™

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#6 SOUTHWIND METRIC took down a division of the Simpson at Pocono Downs on October 28th and returned 8-1 to his backers when he stopped the clock in 1:53.4. He was fifth to Tony Adams in the New Jersey Classic on September 6th at the Meadowlands and has now relocated to Ontario to race under the care of conditioner Marie Helene Dupont. This son of Walner has hit the board in nine of his 20 career attempts and will have the luxury of leaving from post-six when having Chris Christoforou at the reins for the first time. He has not raced in more than three weeks but is worth a try on top in the opener.

#9 R PEAKY BLINDERS trotted away from his rivals in the stretch last week after getting away eighth off the gate and was more than 10 lengths off the lead at the midway point. He stepped his back-half in 56.2 with a final quarter in 28.3 and sparked an upset when he tripped the timer in 1:54.4. This son of Kadabra has progressed nicely for trainer Ben Baillargeon since making trotting hobbles part of his wardrobe again three starts ago but must overcome a tricky draw from post-nine. He has repeat potential.

#4 JGS PAL was unable to get up in time on November 7th but was placed up to the victory when the one below made a break in stride under the wire. He returned 7/2 to his backers while stepping up the class ladder and took that support after he walloped his competition in NW2 on Halloween. This son of Tactical Landing scored by nearly eight lengths on that occasion and will be reunited with driver Louis-Philippe Roy after J-Mac opted for Drebin. He will likely make his presence felt at some point in the mile and can hit the ticket.

#2 BRONZER exits the same race as the one above and was a neck in front of that rival at the finish but was off stride when doing so and was placed back to third. He has hit the board in each of his last five and has only missed a cheque in one of his 13 lifetime tries. This son of Muscle Hill slides back down to the inside of the gate with post-two after having the seven-hole or worse in each of his last two and continues to get along well with Tyler Borth. He has been in good order for conditioner Amanda Fine and is among the top contenders.

Race 2 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 GIVE ME A YANKEE has dominated his rivals in each of his last two while scoring by a combined margin of more than 12 lengths. He had no problem handling the hike in class to NW2 in his latest and dropped nearly three seconds when he stopped the clock in 1:55.4. This son of Bar Hopping has not been worse than second in any of his three lifetime tries and will have Louis-Philippe Roy aboard for an encore performance. He will work from the pole position and looks like a prime candidate to triple-up.

#5 QUICKERTHANTHEEYE sat in the three-hole for much of his mile last week but faded back to sixth under the wire in a race that was topped by Sid The Kid. He had not raced in nearly a month going into that effort and has been shut out in each of his last two after getting his picture taken in his circuit debut in NW1 on October 3rd. This son of Kadabra will be making his second try out of the barn of trainer Kyle Fellows and can benefit from getting back on a regular rotation. He picks up Trevor Henry at the reins for the first time and can help spice up the exotics at a price.

#4 WHEELIN MY BENTLEY has won two in a row and was more than three lengths better than his foes in both of those victories. He most recently tripped the beam in a new career best clocking of 1:56.3 and has not missed the board in any of his last three since getting more than three months off. This son of Wheeling N Dealin has eight top-three finishes from 11 lifetime tries and figures to be brimming with confidence. He has been away from the races for nearly another month but can still make his presence felt.

#7 VERACRUZ has picked up a prize in all but one of his 18 starts for trainer Tim Cherwaiko and completed the superfecta at 8-1 when six lengths in arrears to Sid The Kid in his latest. He is seven for 18 this season with 11 on the board finishes and has proven he can be versatile in his racing style. This son of Father Patrick shifts back out to post-seven and has enough early foot to give himself options off the gate. He can grab a share.

#8 RESILIENCE crushed her competition by nearly a combined nine lengths in the two preliminary legs of this series and delivered at 45 cents to the dollar in both of those dashes. She could not have done it any easier in those efforts and most recently stopped the clock in 1:51.4. This daughter of Jimmy Freight is a perfect two-for-two since missing more than a month of action following a vet scratch due to sickness on October 11th and is the only one in the contest that can complete the sweep of the series. She should be feeling good about herself and is hard to go against at what will surely be a short price, despite the wide draw in post-eight. Top call.

#3 DEFININGTHE MOMENT was unable to stay with the one above last week after she tracked that rival from a loose pocket but did well to fight back against the one below for the place spot in the stretch. She was nearly six lengths behind the winner at the wire but was clearly the best of the rest and gamely took down her division of the opening round by a neck on November 8th. This daughter of Control The Moment has been second or better in seven of her last eight and has not missed the board over that span. She can make her presence felt throughout but will likely get overpowered by the one above. Using underneath.

#2 LANESIDE INCONTROL exits the same race as the two above and made a first-over bid from fourth on the spin for home in that contest but could only get as far as second before having to settle for the bottom spot on the trifecta at 5-1. She briefly got past the one above before getting rebuffed by that foe in the lane and was nearly seven lengths behind the winner in third. This other daughter of Control The Moment recovered to be second to our top choice after making a break in stride behind the gate in the opening round of this series on November 8th and has only finished out of the top-two in one of her eight career attempts.

#5 ROCKS SHADOW was scratched out of the second leg of this series last week due to sickness but only missed by a neck to our second choice on November 8th. She banged home in 26.3 on the heels of a back-half in 54.3 in that effort and has been second or better in her last two. This daughter of Betterthancheddar has been getting along well with driver Travis Cullen and can be more than competitive against this group. She likely gives up a fitness edge to the ones above but is still worth utilizing on the bottom end of the exotics.

Race 4 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#5 VOOM VOOM is one that we are willing to come back to after getting beaten by a wide margin last week at 6-1. She crawled home in 31.2 and did something similar three starts ago but caught our eye in her effort that was sandwiched in between those two outings. This 11-time winner did well to be third on that occasion after getting shuffled back to sixth on the final turn and will now be making her fourth consecutive appearance on the lasix program. She should appreciate getting down to the bottom condition class and once again has our top honors.

#3 SAULSBROOK OLYMPIA has not raced since September 19th after she was scratched one week later due to sickness and now returns to the races off an eighth-place finish in a qualifier on November 15th. She was not asked to do much in that morning prep and appeared to be well-within herself when she paced her own mile in 1:58.1 with a 27.2 kicker. This 28-time winner has nine top-two finishes from 26 tries this season and was competing in NW14550L5 the last time she was on the big track. She might need to get one under her belt before she is ready to show her best but fits in nicely with this group.

#8 PREMIER DELIGHT claimed the show spot to Flight Crew N at 25-1 last week but was six lengths behind that rival at the finish when she stepped her own mile in 1:54.4. She has been third in three of her last four and did not have much of a chance two back in the class above this when she got away last off the gate from post-nine. This daughter of Bettors Delight shifts back towards the outside of the gate for tonight's tilt but should appreciate getting down to NW2500L5. She can be more than competitive against this group and should not be taken lightly.

#9 STONEBRIDGE DRAMA exits the same race as the one above and was just a quarter of a length behind that rival in fourth when she completed the superfecta at 30-1. She drops back down to the classification where she recently enjoyed back-to-back victories but must overcome a tricky draw from post-nine. This 36-time winner has enough early foot to get forwardly placed off the switch and teamed up with J-Mac to deliver at 65 cents to the dollar on November 1st. She is an obvious contender but will have to avoid a taxing trip.

Race 5 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 AWESOME HILL walked away empty-handed in each of her last two in NW18000L5 or higher after she had a year off from racing and will drop down to NW8000L5 when making her third start back. She can benefit from getting those two efforts under her belt and should enjoy getting back down to the spot where she notched her most recent victory on October 6th of 2023. This 16-time winner will slide back down to the pole position and might give this group all they can handle. She will have Jody Jamieson aboard for a follow-up steer and gets the nod on top.

#4 CHEESY SMILE did not have much of a chance last week when she moved up to the class above this and got away ninth off the gate when having rail control. She ended up getting beaten by a wide margin in last but returns to the classification where she has been a runner-up in her last two. This daughter of Betterthancheddar only missed by a nose on November 8th after she blasted home in 26.1 off a back-half in 54 seconds flat but is just one for 25 at the age of four. She has hit the board eight times over that span and can play a major role with the right kind of trip.

#2 WILDCAT STAR exits the same race as the two above and improved to eighth in that dash after getting away last off the gate from post-five. She trailed throughout the opening half of that contest and figures to be much closer to the action when dropping back down to this level. This 11-time winner was only beaten by a neck in fourth two starts ago in this class and was the runner-up to a dominant foe in Caviar N Crackers before that. She is just three starts removed from lighting the lamp in a softer spot and will be reunited with driver James MacDonald for the first time since May.

#8 GLENBORO claimed the show spot at 7-1 when she dropped down to this level on November 15th and has earned a cheque in 13 of her last 18 starts overall. She got her picture taken in the class above this in early October and had to compete in the F&M-Preferred ranks just five starts ago. This 11-time winner must work from an outside draw for the third consecutive outing but has more than enough tactical speed to be prominent throughout. She can pick up a decent chunk.

#2 CHANCY BET is one that we have followed closely throughout her career and she enjoyed a three-race win-streak at Leamington in the summer after finishing a strong second in her lifetime debut at Dresden Raceway in late July. She was second or better in each of the first six starts of her career in NW1 but then had to settle for a lesser share in fifth when she stepped up to NW2 in October. This daughter of All Bets Off has since changed hands and will now make her first start out of the barn of trainer Kyle Fellows. She produced a qualifying victory in 1:58.4 with a 28.3 kicker on November 15th and will now have top teamster James MacDonald at the reins for the first time. The pick.

#3 ROSE COLORDGLASSES was unable to stay on her gait last week when she made a break in stride on the bend for home after getting spotted in the third-over position. She unleashed an eye-catching late charge to be second to Cold Creek Espero two starts ago and was only three quarters of a length away from victory when she fired home in 27.1 on the heels of a back-half in 55.2. This daughter of Freaky Feet Pete was a dominant winner in NW1 at this venue in early September but has not raced with much consistency since then. She fits in nicely with this group and looms as a major danger if she minds her manners.

#7 BOOTS N BLING has been no worse than second in her last five at Flamboro Downs after finishing sixth or worse in her first two career attempts here at this venue at 48-1 or higher in NW1. She enjoyed a three-race win-streak on that half-mile oval before being second in back-to-back tries in the Autumn Series and only missed by a neck to Rollthebet in the final of that added-money event. This daughter of Betterthancheddar will have Phil Hudon calling the shots for the first time when getting back on the big track but was scratched out a scheduled start on November 8th due to sickness. She might be able to do some damage against this group if she is ready to roll and is worth including in the exotic wagers.

#4 RED CARPET READY disappointed as the 6/5 favorite in a condition claimer on November 14th but was only a neck away from victory in second while finishing the race with a broken knee boot. She had earned a cheque in nine of her last 10 at Rideau Carleton before that and went postward in NW4000L5 in each of her last two on that five-eighths of a mile oval. This daughter of Bettors Delight won three in a row in NW20000L prior to that and will be making her second try under the care of conditioner Victor Puddy. She has hit the board in 13 of her 28 attempts as a sophomore and will have Trevor Henry aboard for a follow-up steer.

Race 7 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#8 ANGOSTURA HANOVER got away fourth off the gate from post-nine last week and was cemented on the pylons on the final turn before angling to clearance on the outside in the stretch. She did well to finish fourth at odds of 10-1 and had not raced in nearly a month after being scratched due to sickness on November 2nd. This 11-time winner has only missed one cheque in her 27 starts in 2024 and has managed to hit the board 16 times over that span. She can benefit from getting back on a regular rotation and is our clear choice on top.

#4 CAVIAR N CRACKERS had to step up to the F&M-Preferred in her latest and was just over two lengths away from winner Sylvia Hanover at the wire but walked away empty-handed when finishing sixth. She was only beaten by half a length to Huntress when she claimed the place spot in NW25500L5 on November 8th and could not have been a more dominant winner in NW8200L5 one week earlier when she scored by four lengths in 1:51.4. This 10-time winner should appreciate finding middle ground at this level and will once again work from a favorable draw with post-four. She will likely be making noise in the late stages and might be hard to hold off.

#9 CENTURY JAMILA has spent the first 23 starts of her aged campaign south of the border and has hit the board in 13 of those appearances. She returns to Mohawk Park for the first time in over a year and will now race out of the barn of trainer Dave Menary. This 11-time winner captured the OSS Grassroots Final at this venue in September of 2023 and will be reunited with leading driver James MacDonald, who has piloted her to seven victories in the past. She must overcome a tricky draw from post-nine but merits consideration.

#1 LYONS BETTORDAY finished third when she dropped down to this level last week and was left uncovered on the final turn after Stonebridge Halo cleared to the lead. She did well to claim the show spot at odds of 7/2 after going on the attack in the first-over position and will get another crack at this class this evening. This daughter of Bettors Delight will be making her third start back in the barn of trainer Tony Beaton and will once again have Louis-Philippe Roy calling the shots. She will work from the pole position and can pick up a slice.

Race 8 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 ALLSMOKEANDMIRRORS was second-best to Betterwithglasses at 7-1 last week when stepping up to NW3 and has been the runner-up in each of her last three. She has been fourth or better in all of her last five since being claimed for $20,000 by conditioner Carmen Auciello and should appreciate dropping back down to this level. This daughter of Betterthancheddar will have Louis-Philippe Roy calling the shots for the first time and might be able to work out a cozy trip from the pole position. She has been knocking at the door for her new connections and gets top billing.

#4 ALWAYS B MERRY exits the same race as the one above and tried to split horses in deep stretch when finishing on the inside of that rival. She did well to complete the trifecta at odds of 7-1 and drops back down to the class where she was victorious two weeks earlier at a slightly lower number. This daughter of Always B Miki has hit the board five of her last seven and has only missed one cheque in her 24 career attempts. She will move in a couple of spots on the gate to post-four and looms as the main danger.

#2 GRIT N GRACE is an intriguing option that has relocated to Ontario from Manitoba to race out of the barn of trainer Mike Kwietniowski. She is six for 11 so far in her career since making her lifetime debut in early July at The Loop in Winnipeg and has a couple of winning qualifiers on this surface to her credit. This daughter of Im The Pied Piper most recently banged home in 26.4 on the heels of a back-half in 56.1 in preparation for her circuit debut and has been getting along well with Bob McClure in the mornings. She might need to get a start under her belt before she is ready to show her best but can still hit the ticket.

#8 GOOD AS HELL was the runner-up to Carsons Gouda in NW3500L3 at Flamboro Downs last Sunday night and had not raced in three weeks going into that effort. She has not been worse than second in her last nine overall and has racked-up five victories over that span. This daughter of Shadow Play can benefit from getting back in on a tighter turnaround but must overcome the outermost post in the contest when getting on the big track for the first time. She figures to offer value on the tote board and has upset potential.

Race 9 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#9 CLEOMAX DUHARAS kept driving to the lead from post-eight in her circuit debut on October 25th and chopped-out the middle panels before giving way to Billie Jean Queen in deep stretch. She was two lengths in arrears in second under the wire at 6-1 and has since moved to the care of conditioner Marie Helene Dupont. This daughter of Muscle Mass has missed nearly a month between outings but will have Tyler Borth aboard for a follow-up steer and has shown more than enough tactical speed to overcome the nine-hole. She fits in nicely with this group and gets the edge on top.

#5 GO HAVE FUN was moving well at the end of her mile last week and got within a neck of winner Perfect Angel at the finish. She has been the runner-up in each of her last three and has not missed a cheque in her last six overall. This daughter of Kadabra is just one for 27 in her career but has hit the board 10 times over that span. She will have Bob McClure aboard for a follow-up drive and can be right there at the wire.

#4 NO ONE exits the same race as the one above and was forwardly placed in that contest to sit in the three-hole for most of her journey. She was able to move into the pocket on the spin for home when Shetrotsalot vacated the pylons but then had to wait for room in the stretch before getting within half a length of the winner in third at 32-1. This daughter of Looklikeeachpndale gets significant post relief tonight after having the eight-hole or worse in each of her last three and figures to be in the mix throughout. She is worth a look if the price is right.

#3 EXCITING MIA was just over a length away from Perfect Angel when she claimed the show spot on November 1st and has now hit the board in seven straight. She is just two for 30 in her career but has 16 top-three finishes over that span and more than $66,000 in earnings. This daughter of Muscle Mass has not raced in three weeks after being scratched out of her latest due to transportation issues but will leave from a favorable spot on the gate with post-three. She can never be ruled out and is worth including in all of the exotic wagers.
