Betting Basics

Some essentials to get you started with making a wager.

How to wager

Place your bet by visiting a teller, or using a self-serve terminal.

To place a bet here are just 5 things you need to know:

- Name of racetrack (choose from any track in the simulcast feeds)
- 2 Number of the race
- 3 Amount of your bet (e.g. $2)
- 4 Type of bet (see step 2)
- 5 Horse's number (see step 4)

Once you have decided what you want to bet, head to the nearest seller's window and use the sample statement as your guide:

Hello, (Racetrack), race 6, $2 to WIN on Horse #4

How to use a self-serve terminal:

- 1 Swipe your Cash Card/Insert Cash
- 2 Enter the initial PIN #1234 (then choose a new PIN)
- 3 Press/Tap the track you would like to bet: (defaults to current race)
- 4 Tap the Horse Number: #4
- 5 Press/Tap the Bet Type: WIN
- 6 Press/Tap the Bet Amount: $2
- 7 Press/Tap the Race Number: Race #6
- 8 Press Green "Make BET" button
- 9 Press/Tap the "Finish with Receipt" button
- 10 Be sure to check your ticket to confirm it's the bet you wanted

To get a Cash Card or for assistance ask a teller, or a staff member.

Types of bets

Single horse bets (minimum $2.00 bet is required)

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Win	UUU	Your horse must finish 1st; payoff determined by the win odds.
Place	UU	Your horse must finish 1st or 2nd; payoffs better than to show.
Show	U	Your horse must finish 1st, 2nd, or 3rd; modest payoffs.

Exotic multiple-horse bets

Bet type	Level of difficulty	Explanation and expectation
Exacta*	UUUU	Your horses must finish 1st and 2nd in exact order; riskier bet that can pay a little or a lot, depending on the horses' odds.
Daily double	UUUUU	Pick the winners of two designated consecutive races.
Pick 3, Win 4, Pick 5, Pick 6	UUUUUU	Select the winners of a designated set of consecutive races. The wager must be made prior to the start of the first race in the multi-race wager.
Triactor*	0 $0$ $0$ $0$ $0$ $0$ $0$ $0$	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in exact order; can be expensive to play if you use a lot of horses.
Superfecta*	0	Your horses must finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th; big payoff possible.

* Exotic bets require the horses to finish in the EXACT order you select, unless you "BOX" the bet, in which case your selections can finish in any order. For more information visit ONTARIORACING.com

All of the numbers and letters in the program might seem confusing or overwhelming at first, but focusing on these sections makes choosing a horse simple.

- 1 Horse's number in the race
- 2 Horse's post position colour
- 3 Horse's colour, sex, age,sire (father), dam (mother), sire of the dam
- 4 Morning line odds
- 5 Horse's name
- 6 Driver and Driver Record (Name, # of wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, winning %)
- 7 Trainer information
- 8 Horse's Lifetime record (with best win time, track size, track, age, lifetime wins and lifetime earnings)
- 9 Horse's current record (# of races, # wins, # of 2nds, # of 3rds, and money earned)

4

The odds

Odds are also important to consider when choosing your horse. Horses that are thought to have a better chance of winning will typically have lower odds.

Morning line odds

Odds listed in the race program are the "morning line" odds. These are predictions of how the public will bet on the race. They are set by the track's handicapper when the race program is published, before the wagering starts.

The actual odds will be posted on the Television or in-field on the Tote Board before the race; they change up until post time, depending on how customers are betting on each horse in the race.

Calculating a $2 win prize

To calculate a win prize, find the Odds of a horse on the Television or Tote Board (in-field board).

Multiply the first number by 2, then divide that number by the second digit (if there is one), and then add $2. Simple as that!

Odds	1/2	2/1	7/2	5/1	10/1
Pays	$3.00	$6.00	$9.00	$12.00	$22.00

Helpful facts for betting

- Some racetracks have a television simulcast commentator who tries to identify winning horses (handicaps) between the races. Listen and see if you can pick up any good tips to bet on.
- A good betting method is to choose horses with current odds two to three times higher than their morning line odds.

3 Tips to remember

WIN BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 32% of the time PLACE BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 53% of the time SHOW BETS on the FAVOURITE pay 67% of the time

* Numbers listed above are approximate, may vary by racetrack.

Woodbine Entertainment and its' employees are honoured to engage in the sport of horse racing and entertainment activities in the meeting place of Etobicoke. Woodbine Racetrack is located within the traditional and treaty Lands of the Mississaugas of the Credit. Known as Adoobiigok, the "Place of the Alders" in Michi Saagiig language, the region is uniquely situated along the Humber River Watershed, which historically provided an integral connection for Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, and Wendat peoples between the Ontario Lakeshore and Lake Simcoe/Georgian Bay regions. The territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Anishinaabe and the Haudenosaunee to peaceably take care of the land and resources around the Great Lakes. Woodbine is honoured to care for this land, our human and equine athletes, and provide a place to race responsibly.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 MISTER MAGIC fires back quickly after registering a blowout win here on Monday night. In that race, he toppled the 1 to 2 favorite after sitting in his pocket until the three-quarter pole where he pounced. His final quarter time of 33 seconds flat is no concern to me because there was a strong headwind in the stretch on that night that affected those final fractions. This gelding has been one of the harder knockers on the circuit for several years and he has gone in and out of form a few times. History tells us that when he is on his game, he is one tough customer. Trainer Auciello looks to strike while the iron is hot and starting from the best post, Mister Magic gets the call to repeat.

#4 BUCK DANCER set the pace with the choice stalking and eventually blowing past him in the stretch on Monday night. He took the bulk of the mutuel support that night probably based on him dropping in class to the level where he crushed his rivals on January 6th. This nine-year-old gelding took six wins last year from 22 starts and earned more than $78,000 facing tougher than tonight's rivals for most of the year. His class and speed make him one of the top contenders in this field and teamster Roy will no doubt put him in play leaving the gate again. He can be an Exacta factor tonight.

#8 KAMERAN HANOVER ships in from Flamboro Downs in good form but he draws poorly tonight. Although he doesn't show any races at this track in his program lines, he has been a fixture in the trotting conditioned ranks here for most of his lengthy racing career, at one point racing at the Preferred level. He has a versatile racing style, and I won't be surprised if he gets put into action at the start by driver Christoforou tonight because he is in for a claiming tag for the first time in his career in this 213th start. There is a good chance some claims will be put in on the veteran and if that's the case, he will likely be pointed to the front leaving the gate. He is another possibility for your early Pick 5 tickets.

#9 CIEL BLEU was beaten by more than 17 lengths by the choice last week, but I take some positives from that mile. After starting from the worst post, it was no surprise he dropped to back leaving the gate. He made a wide move on the last turn and passed enough of his rivals to earn a cheque. He was one of few in the race that closed ground in the back half, even though he never got close to the top three. Three starts back racing at this level, he produced a nice rally to get third and I can see him closing from the back tonight and landing in the bottom of the Tri or Super.

BEST BET: MISTER MAGIC

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 GRANNYS WATCHING stepped up to this level on a two-race win streak last week and she took little support at the windows, but she was put into the race at the outset and led to the stretch. Despite her getting passed by four rivals in the lane, I think that fifth-place finish was better than it looks on paper. Here's why: after leaving from post eight she didn't clear until past the quarter then she had to deal with a rival that got hung the mile and applied relentless pressure. She got no breathers on a night where the lead and the inside path in the lane were not the best place to be. It's reasonable to expect that she will get a better result tonight and she should offer a good price again; top call.

#5 GRAND CIRCUIT enjoyed a productive 2024 campaign racing south of the border where she earned more than $66,000 of the strength of four wins and nine other shares from 25 starts. Racing for Team Cullen locally, she has won twice in five starts and comes off a strong closing effort last week where she finished ahead of the choice. In that mile, she followed a rival that was parked the route, and she was turned loose in the six-wide path in mid stretch. She was shaded by the #8 in this race who threaded the needle between foes late to steal the win. This improving four-year-old mare is in with a decent chance tonight.

#7 CAUGHTSTEALINGHOME has gone from Century Mile in Alberta to London to Mohawk Park in the past few weeks and she has held her form well. She comes into tonight's race off a win over the top two choices in a mile where she watched many of them knock heads in front of her, saved her move for the lane, then slid past them all between horses to get the job done. She was likely aided by the closer bias on that night, but she was expertly handled by hot driver McNair, who won six races the following night. I prefer to use this mare underneath tonight starting from a wide post, but I won't be shocked if she does indeed score a repeat.

#8 RED CARPET READY was noticeably moving well along the pylons at the end of her mile last week when she finished third, beating the choice by three quarters of a length. She had a good campaign racing exclusively at Rideau Carleton last year and she has continued that good form since arriving in Ontario in mid-November. Jonathan Drury, who piloted this mare for the first time last week, again handles the lines and I see her sneaking into the bottom of the Tri or Super.

Race 3 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#3 SUNSHINE MAGIC came into last week's race off a three-week absence following a sick scratch and she moved up to face non-winners of three that night. After floating out from post seven, she was circled by the #8 horse and left hung out to dry. She showed her mettle by advancing and applying pressure on the leader who she eventually out finished despite enduring a much tougher trip. She drops back down to face non-winners of two and owner/trainer/driver Jeff Hunt steered her to an easy win at this level two starts back on January third. She gets top billing tonight.

#7 FOXY SEASIDE caught the eye in her qualifier on January 24th. Sitting third at the three-quarter pole and looking racy, she was sent to the outside and she towered up late on the outside to catch a leader who had built up a big lead and looked gone. We know that she races well fresh because she opened her racing career with a debut win last year. The 28 2/5 kicker she fired in that qualifier on 1/24 shows she is ready to roll and the icing on the cake is she gets the leading driver in the bike tonight. She figures to be right there in this sophomore debut.

#6 TH SANDRA DEE tipped her hand when she rocketed home along the pylons in the final sixteenth of her mile on January 3rd. She was no secret in her next start two weeks later where she broke her maiden in her third lifetime start as the big favorite. In that mile, she ratcheted up her late speed again, flashing home in 27 2/5 to get the lion's share of the purse. This sophomore Dancin Lou offspring still has some upside, and she will likely be passing some rivals again tonight to land a good share.

#2 ONTOP RAINSTORM makes her third start of the year in this non-winners of three field after trying the Blizzard Series twice. She has an excuse for her poor finish last week as he crossed the wire with broken equipment. She took her lifetime mark of 1:53 4/5 here last year in a campaign where she landed in the money in six of 13 starts, taking one win. I see her sitting and rallying for a small share in this spot tonight.

Race 4 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#4 ROYAL BELUGA is one that has been getting slow starts then trying to navigate through the field in the back half in recent starts. It's likely that he will get better position at the start of this race getting off the tricky rail post, that he has remarkably drawn in five of seven starts since starting back up in December. He showed promise at two last year, finishing third in a division of the Millard Farms in his debut. He also trotted in 1:57 in both of his wins, which is the second fastest mark in this field. He gets a key driver change to McClure tonight. It's go time.

#9 WHEELIN MY BENTLEY missed 17 days between starts when he showed up in a race at London's Raceway at Western Fair on Monday night. He raced evenly, now he fires back quickly in a spot where will likely use his good gate speed to get positioned near the front at the start. He has already won at this level, making a couple of moves in a race last October on his way to a 1:56 3/5 lifetime mark. He also has notched three placings at this level, and he should be a threat vs. these getting regular driver Tyler Borth back in the bike tonight.

#8 SPIN FOR LIFE comes off a good second place finish to repeat winner PC Peterbilt in which he was aggressively handled by Colin Kelly. He relinquished the lead in the third quarter, then re-rallied to get second in a solid effort. This three-time winner has had some gait issues recently, but he has been right there in the starts in which he stayed trotting. Assuming he behaves tonight, he will get put into play at the start and I see him as an exotics player in this spot.

#3 QUICKERTHANTHEYE is another that comes out of the races won by streaking PC Peterbilt. He changed tactics last week and closed mildly to just miss a cheque. He fares better when he is put into play leaving the gate and he retains driver Doug McNair tonight, who will likely look to get positioned better with him leaving the gate. This five-year-old Kadabra gelding didn't start his career until he was four and he still has some upside. He can land a spot in the Tri or Super tonight.

Race 5 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#10 SETTN A PRECEDENT drops to a level where she has won the last three times, she raced this low, using different styles in each of those wins. Five starts back, when she drew inside, she took the lead at the half and saw it through to the wire. Eleven starts back, she closed from ninth at the three quarters to get up for the win on the strength of a 27 1/5 final quarter. Previous to that, she also scored facing similar to tonight's field last June. This 26-time winner rarely squanders an opportunity when she holds a class edge, and she should offer a decent price in here starting from post 10 and facing a mare that has won several races recently. Driver Roy, who handled her last time she won, takes the lines tonight and this mare gets top billing.

#3 CHARMBO STORMY has been on a tear recently, winning six of her last seven starts, and missing a seven-race win streak by a mere head. Most recently, she sat off an early pace battle, then proceeded a first up journey in the third quarter. She raced in the middle of the track in the stretch which was a good path that night and she prevailed in a slowing late pace. This seven-year-old mare has excelled racing out of the Jared Mann barn after getting claimed for $8,000 last November. Her strength is her ability to take air and keep advancing. Tonight, she gets the attention of the leading driver, who takes over the lines and she should be right there again despite stepping up in class.

#5 ALABAMA HANNAH took a brief rest and has now had three starts back, sandwiching a win between two races where she failed to get a cheque. She has been productive in 2024-25, taking five wins from 34 starts and nine other placings while earning close to $90,000. She raced higher than this level for most of 2024 and won at a higher level in November. She is typically driven aggressively when she is at a level where she looks like one of the main contenders. Doug McNair gets back in the bike tonight and he sent her right down the road racing one level lower than this on January 17th. This hard knocking five-year-old mare is another possibility for multi-race tickets in this spot.

#2 HES EXPRESS was claimed for $30,000 by trainer Auciello six starts back and she has made every subsequent start at this $50,000 optional claiming level, taking cheques in four of five starts. Her best results have come when she has got away in the top four, sat in waiting for the stretch drive, then came on late passing some tired rivals. She should be able to work out that kind of a trip in this spot and I see her rounding out the Tri or Super.

Race 6 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 CHOCOLATEFORLUNCH has won the last two times she raced at Mohawk Park with relentless closing efforts in the final quarter. She has had no problem overcoming ground loss to chase the leader down each time and she has been visually impressive towering up in the middle of the track. Most recently, she unleashed a 26 4/5 kicker which was only 1/5 of a second off the fastest final quarter of the night notched by 1 to 9 shot G A Speed Expert in the Snowshoe Series. This mare has already matched her 2024 win output of two in just four starts this year. Trevor Henry, who drove her to both 2025 wins, again handles the lines and a repeat win is likely in this spot.

#7 LADY GET LUCKY gets to take a class drop here after missing a cheque in three straight starts racing one level higher. She has raced at higher levels than this for 14 straight starts, winning once and taking a few other shares along the way. She looks like one of only a couple that want to blast off the gate and there aren't many better in handling those types than McNair, who handles her tonight. Knowing that she is dropping to the bottom conditioned level, he is sure to put her into play. She could be the one that the choice needs to chase down late, and I wouldn't be shocked if she leads all the way tonight.

#2 STONEBRIDGE DRAMA sat in last week then looked to rally late. When the field fanned out in the lane, she had to wait to find racing room. Once clear, she closed willingly between horses, but by that time, the choice and a couple of others had already built up momentum that she didn't have at that point. This ten-year-old mare took four wins last year and in every one of those victories she was raced aggressively, winning either racing on the lead or form the pocket. Driver Davis Jr., who has done well deploying an aggressive driving style since returning home, will likely put this mare into paly tonight leaving the gate. She has a chance to score here in a field that doesn't appear to have many fast leavers.

#3 ACEFORTYFOUR DAISY was sent off at a big price starting from the widest post last week and she rallied for second behind the choice. In that race, she followed the choice in the lane then fanned out to find the best part of the track. That was her third start racing out of the Mann barn since being claimed for $10,000 on January 2nd and she showed improved late speed. This ten-time winner took a Pop Up series victory seven starts back, a race where she edged the choice by three-quarters of a length. Brett Macdonald once again sits behind this improving mare who should be heard from in the stretch again.

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#6 STEELWHEEL HANOVER was bet down to favorite last week based on a powerful win in leg 1 of this Pop Up series the week before. He made a middle move to the front last week but tired in the stretch which was a common theme that night for horses racing along the inside down the lane. It was clear that racing on the front was not the place to be last Friday. Only Open pacing mare Blue Pacific was able to lead all the way to take a win on that 11-race card. I'm willing to forgive this four-year-old gelding's stretch fade and give him top billing tonight starting from the best post.

#3 ALLSTAR PLAYBOY skipped the opening leg of this series and rallied for third in leg two last week after starting from a wide post, the second start in a row where he drew post nine. He has a much better chance tonight moving inside: see his January 2nd Pop Up series win where he was able to land in mid pack early then rally for the win. I could see Tyler Jones finding him a similar covered trip tonight in this final and rolling past the leaders late for his second win of the year. He is hard to leave off multi-race tickets.

#7 GRAVITATIONAL is the only one in this field that won both preliminary legs of the series. In both of those starts, he was sent forward leaving the gate by driver Davis Jr. and he was rewarded in both cases with victories. Last week, he benefitted from a pocket trip on a night where leaders were not seeing it through. But he took a new lifetime mark of 1:54 3/5 in leg 1 while dominating six rivals. This four-year-old Heston Blue Chip gelding couldn't be any sharper and he is another contender in what looks like a great betting race.

#1 BOOTS drew best last week, and he took advantage of that good draw to score as favorite in a new lifetime best of 1:56. In that race, he took the early lead, then let a rival go, then popped the pocket at the head of the lane, took over control, then held off an onrushing rival late. He draws the rail now in a field where it looks like there will be plenty of leavers. It is unlikely that he will be able to work out the same great trip in this final and I am inclined to use him underneath tonight.

Race 8 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#2 LOVE ON ME is one that I am going to take a big swing for the fences with in this Blizzard Series final. Last week, she tried to rally in the lane, and she finished with pace but could not get through traffic in deep stretch. She finished her mile glued to a rival's helmet and surrounded on both sides, leaving her no room to advance. She gets regular driver Cullen back in the bike and he steered her to a narrow loss in leg 1. In a race where there could be a lot of early action, she gets the call to notch the upset.

#9 OH A LEGEND will likely be favored tonight, and rightfully so when you consider how she dominated the two opening legs of this series as a big favorite in both cases. She similarly dominated the opening legs of the Niagara Series then broke stride as the favorite in the final. She has won six of her last eight starts, the only losses being the one in which she broke and the other a narrow defeat to Mikki Slxx, who got away from the field that night on the lead. She is the obvious one to beat.

#3 DIRTY DIANA didn't get the job done as the 1 to 2 favorite last week, but she was likely a victim of a track bias in that case. Racing on a track that was unkind to both leaders and horses racing on the inside, she had no response for a rival that tore off cover and powered down the best part of the track. This John Pentland pupil hasn't missed the board since returning to action in November and she has a better shot tonight assuming the track is playing fairly. Bob McClure, who has driven this mare to all four of her wins, returns to the bike tonight.

#1 SPACE CADEBT comes in off two third place finishes to Oh A Legend in which she sat inside trips in both, then stuck around for a share. She does her best when racing off a helmet and she has shown that she is fast enough to go with these, taking a mark of 1:52 1/5 in November. She will most likely get spotted in mid pack early here and stickhandle her way to a spot in the Super. She is a good one to use on the bottom of the exotics at a price.

Race 9 Selections

The Horseplayer's Journal by Garnet Barnsdale

#5 HUNTRESS had the misfortune of facing streaking Blue Pacific last week who is so good right now that she was the only horse to beat a closer bias and lead all the way to win. This $400,000 earner fits much better at this level, and she should be sent forward leaving the gate dropping in class tonight. You'll notice that she was beaten a nose racing at a similar class level four starts back. The difference there was, she was racing against open company, facing some salty older male pacers, and she almost got the job done. She is always right there when she races at this kind of a level against mares, and she is strictly the one to beat tonight.

#8 GLENBORO is the other class dropper in here and she followed Blue Pacific home in two straight starts, both solid efforts. She took nine wins in 2024 in a good campaign and most of those wins came around this class level. The common thread in those victories was her leaving hard and getting a good spot racing near the front. This looks like a spot where Cullen will blast off the gate and look to lead all the way or find the pocket and follow the choice. She should be an Exacta factor tonight.

#4 CAVIAR N CRACKERS won facing similar three starts back, deploying her typical strong closing style to get the job done. She then moved up to the non-winners of $28,750 last five level and got a share, finishing a closing fourth to classy Dabarndawgswatching and So Much More. Last week, she was one of many that did little in Blue Pacific's wake and that line is a toss for me. This mare fits well at this level for Team Hensley, and she may be the one to fend off late in this mile.

#6 ANGOSTURA HANOVER took a class drop last week and she went off as the logical favorite and she was edged late but raced great in defeat. After leaving decently from the rail, she was sent first up by driver McNair, providing a perfect tow for the second choice who rode her cover. She was dead game in the stretch, but her rival got too good of a trip following perfect cover and she wouldn't be denied. She raced at this level for eight straight starts from November 15th to January 3rd, and she took a cheque in every one of those starts, but no wins. I think she lands in the bottom of the Tri or Super tonight.
